

Geological Map of Ireland

Colour in the map to produce your own geological map of Ireland and put an X where you live. The six rock types marked on the map are those given to every school in Ireland together with an accompanying booklet. Ask your teacher to let you and your class look at these.

