

Touring Ireland Game - to collect building materials

A game for up to 6 players. Be the first to collect all the material that you need to build your house. Each player starts at a different city. Throw the die once - the person throwing the lowest number starts. Then in turn throw the die and move clockwise around Ireland. Collect your building material as you pass each numbered hexagon. The first player back to their city is the winner!

